What is that all about?

I am Natalie Walsh, A Twenty-Eight Northern photo-taker who loves cheese, chocolate and coffee.

This is my own little space on the internet where I write and share all the things I love, do and about my personal battle with losing weight.

I am more than happy to review products providing they are relevant to my content and the interest of my readers. This includes but not limited to products, clothing, books Travel and technology. All items sent for review are marked as such and include no-follow links. Reviews are always open and honest however I will contact you prior if I have not enjoyed the product or face any Issues etc.

Sponsored Posts

For relevant brands and products I do accept sponsored posts maybe subject to a fee. These include sharing the post on my social media channels and including any keywords or any specific requirements you may have. All sponsored posts are clearly marked as sponsored as required by law and are no-follow only. Please inform me of deadlines and T&C in your initial email as this saves time for us both.
